3 "A" Bereavement Foundation's (3ABF) mission is to assist indigent and low-income bereaved families to expediently secure affordable and respectable services to meet their bereavement needs.

3ABF serves families who have suffered through the ordeal of long-term illnesses or are shattered by unexpected losses. We occupy a unique position as the only organization in the Houston Metropolitan Area dedicated to the purpose of providing comprehensive bereavement services to low-income and indigent families.

Over our 10-year history, 3ABF has:

- Assisted over 2300 bereaved families
- Provided over $185,000 to offset funeral and burial costs
- Assisted families to receive over $660,000 from other supporters (primarily the Texas Crime Victims' Compensation Fund, FEMA – Hurricane Katrina & Hurricane Rita Evacuees and the generosity of local churches)
- Provided over 315 hours of grief counseling services
- Provided peace and restored hope to indigent and low-income families throughout Houston
- Launched bilingual services for the Hispanic community in 2006
